REPORT OF THE POSTMASTER GENERAL.

POST OFFICE DEFARTMENT, ?

December 5, 1336.

To the President of the United States: Sir: In his report of last year, the undersigned stated the post roads of the United States to be about 112,774 miles in extent, and the annual transportation of the mails upon them equal to about 25,869,486 miles.

On the first of July last, the post roads were about 118, 264 miles in extent, and the annual transportation of the mails was at the rate of 27,578,620 miles, viz: 8,291,504 On horses and in sulkies,

The rate of annual transportation at this time is little short of 29,000,000 miles.

Of the new routes, 30,557 miles remain to be put in operation, which will add to the annual service 3,487,788

The accompanying report of the First Assistant Postmaster General, marked 1, will give this information more in detail.

The number of post offices in the United States, on the 1st July, 1835, was 10,770—on the 1st July, 1836, it was of the mails, are in many parts of the country difficult of 11,091-and on the 1st inst. 11,100. During the year ending the 30th June last, 666 post of-

The suspended claims, a part of which has been paid, are not included in these statements.

Of the old debts, there was paid out of the revenue of the year ending the 30th June last, the sum of $466,376. As anticipated in the last report, the bank debt was paid off in April last. The cash in bank has since rapidly accumulated, and on the 1st November last was $550,-000. Deducting all outstanding warrants, it was $503,-721 11. The sum of $83,278 has been paid to Messrs.

For safety, however, it may be estimated at fiftee per cent. yielding a revenue for the year ending 30th June, 1837, amounting to $3,903,222.

of cash in bank before the 1st of August next, exceeding day is occupied in transporting the mails between Mobile $700.000.

In view of these facts and estimates, the undersigned does not he sitate to recommend a revision of the present rates of postage, to take effect on the 1st July next, with a view to a reduction of about twenty per cent. To this end, he suggests the following scale of letter postages in hou of the present, vlz:

75 miles and under. 300 miles and over 75. 10 600 miles and over 150, 15 600 miles and over 300, . . . 20

to charges of double, treble, and quadruple postage, and

From its simplicity, this scale will be easily remembered. It proposes to introduce the federal corrency, renders copper coins unnecessary in making change, and saves the loss to the people arising from fractions. It will reduce the labor now required in making up and examining postmasters' accounts, about one-fourth.

If the proposed scale of letter postages shall be adopted it will be necessary to raise the lowest rate of commissions to enable the postmasters at the large offices to carry on their business. The propriety of placing gold coins sent

Great changes have taken place in the newspaper business of the country since the present rates of postage were established. Newspapers have not only increased in number, but many of them have grown to an inordinate size. Postage however, is the same, whether the newspaper be great or small. If not carried over 100 miles and out of the State where printed, it is I cent; if out of the State and over 100 miles, 1 1-2 cents. The policy of reducing the rates of postage on newspapers generally, is doubted. They constitute, in weight, probably two-thirds transportation, and produce numberless failures. These considerations would be of no moment if it were really ne cessary that large quantities of newspapers should be transported from one end of the Union to the other, as The number of post offices will be greatly increased in the coming year, in consequence of the great extension of but that office can be as well performed by the local press es as by newspapers from a distance. To reduce the postage on newspapers below the actual cost of carrying them, would be to tax the correspondence of the country generalty for the benefit of the large new paper establishments in the principal cities, to the injury of all the distant and country presses. Such a measure is not believed to be consistent with sound principle and good policy. It is not sound principle to tax the business of one portion of the people for the benefit of another portion; it is not good policy to aid the large city establishments in monopolizing the newspaper circulation, to the exclusion of the local and country presses. But there is justice and good policy in graduating the postage on newspapsrs according to the size and weight of the matter to be conveyed. The

If these rates were reduced one half, it would not materially deminish the means of the Department, provided the entire newspaper postage were paid in advance. So In the report of last year the excess was estimated at $476,227 00—but the revenue was $195,763 19 more than the estimate, and the expenditure $60,841 24 less, whole impression sent by mail, the Postmaster General might be safely authorised to accept one-half of the forego-

> Single newspapers are now extensively used, through various devices and conventional signs, to answer the purpose of letters, and evade the payment of postage. It would check this abuse if they were in all cases subjected to double postage, to be paid in advance.

The rates of postage on periodical pamphlets may be advantageously regulated on the same principles as those suggested for newspapers, and reduced to the lowest rate which will pay for their transportation. If a preference be given to any thing, it should be to works of agriculture science, and the mechanic arts; but the principle is believed to be a good one in relation to the mails, that every thing shall pay its own way.

Fugitive pamphlets may with propriety be subjected to double postage, always paid in advance. The proposed revision of postages, if taken as a whole, would reduce the income of the Department from two to three hundred thousand dollars below its estimated expen Total available means, , $1,284,625 82 ditures; but the surplus on hand will sustain is until the regular increase of revenue will cover the difference. The franking privilege has been so far extended, and is by many so unscrupulously used, as to constitute an abuse which requires correction. Some who possess it do not hesitate to cover the correspondence of their friends and neighbours with their franks, in direct contravention of the law. A wilful violation by postmasters, when made known $642,783 81 to the department, is punished by instant removal from office: but public officers of higher dignity, though more criminal, cannot be reached by the same authority. Violations of law in this respect, by those who are under pre-eminent obligations to set examples of obedience to its precepts, are believed to be diminishing, and there is ground to hope that they will soon measurably cease. An amendment of the law is necessary in reference to the generally, presupposes the existence of competition in bidding, and is adapted to the existing state of things on all routes where the mails are carried on horseback or in Stockton and Stokes on the award of the Solicitor of the stages. But the reason of the law is not applicable to Treasury, but notwithstanding this payment, and a great most cases where railroad service is required, because extension of mail service, it is estimated that the cash in bank will exceed $600,000 before the first day of May lines is a mockery. During the year ending the 30th June, 1838, the new railroads, and accomplish other important results, an exroutes and other improvements in the mail service will press mail has been started on the great mail line between doubtless produce a decided effect on the income of the New York and New Orleans. From New York to Philadepartment; and it may be reasonably anticipated that delphia, and from Mobile to New Orleans, it is merged in there will be an advance of at least fifteen per cent. over the great mail and carried in railroad cars and steamboats, that of the current year. If this anticipation be realized, The great mail is twelve days and seventeen hours, acthat of the current year. If this anticipation be realized, the revenue of that year, at the present rates of postage, will be about $4,494,000, exceeding the estimated current rate of expenditure at its commencement about $688,000.

And it is expected that the department will have a surplus Mobile, and five days twenty-three hours returning. One and New Orleans.

The saccess of this experiment is not doubted; and the size of the mail already affords an assurance that it will produce an income more than sufficient to support it. This mail leaves far behind all news conveyed upon railroads, or by any other means. It will give unprecedented activity to commercial transactions between the north and the south. New York communicates with New Orleans in half the usual time; all enterprises are expedited; the whole intervening coun-all enterprises are expedited; the whole intervening country and the Valley of the Mississippi will feel the impulse.

The editors and people of New Orleans will receive the news from Now York in less than half the time it has heretofore occupied in the transit. The editors will have the advantage of being the original dispensers of the news to their subscribers; and the people will obtain it through their own papers, without postage, five or six days sooner than it can reach them in the New York papers, with postage. The editors and the people along the whole route and to the right and left, will participate in the same advantages in a greater or less degree. On the other hand, the circulation in the south of newspapers from the principal cities of the north will undoubtedly be diminished. This injury is more than counterbalanced by the benefits seured to the local establishments; and if it were not, it is not to be brought into competition with the advantages of an earlier transmission and dissemination of commercial and other intelligence. No measure should be taken with a view to injure the great city establishnents; but it would be unreasonable and unjust in the Department to withold information from the people of the outh, because it cannot carry, with equal expedition, the cumbrous sheets from the northern newspaper presses. It is, and doubtless will continue to be, the policy of the Department not to send the news with less expedition; but to bring the whole mail to the speed of the express as fast as it can secure continuous railroad or steamboat

The undersigned confidently believes it will be found expedient, within the coming year, to start express mails from Washington city along the route of the national road to St. Louis, from New Orleans, through Nashville, Louisville, and Cincinnati, to connect above with the great eastern and western route; and from Boston, through Albany, to Buffalo, New York. Such mails on these routes, be believes, would immediately support themselves and give an activity to business and correspondence in every direction, which would much enhance the general revenues of the department, and promote public intelligence, and prosperity. But should experience or reflection lead to the conviction that these enterprizes will not produce an increase of revenue sufficient to support them, they will not be undertaken.

The attention of the undersigned has been urgently called by the deputy post master general of the British North American Province, to the insecurity of correspondence carried on through the packet ships between Canada and the United States on the one side, and the British isles on the other. Valuable letters and packets sent from Canada through the port of New York, and from various parts of the United States, never reach their destination. The only effectual remedy which suggests itself is a reguar mail across the ocean, and a direct connection between the post offices of the two countries. By a reciprocal arrangement, mails mi ht be interchanged between the post offices in New York and Liverpool, or any other for-eign port, to be conveyed by the packets, or other vessels, under contract. The number of letters now crossing the ocean is so great that a moderate postage on them would pay the cost of their transportation. There is scarcely a doubt that such an arrangement may be effected, if Congress shall think it expedient to grant the necessary power. The object of authorizing printer's exchange papers to pass in the mails free of postage, would be further promoted by extending the privilege to exchanges with printers in foreign countries; an extension which is desired by the printers in the foreign provinces bordering on the United States, and will be the more useful if the proposed interchange of mails with the post offices in Europe shall be authorized.

The building in which the General Post Office is kept is not fire-proof, and its valuable books and papers daily exposed to destruction. With such ample means as the Government now has at command, the undersigned perceives no good reason why the greatest possible should not be given to its archives. The other Executive departments suffer inconvenience from the distance of the General and City Post Office; and since the passage of the late law which connects the Post Office with the Treasury, and makes frequent references to the President necessary, that inconvenience is seriously felt by the department itself. Annexed will be found an outline of the organization of the department under the late act of Congress marked 2. The contract Office is overwhelmed with the increased business brought upon it by extensions of mail service and the new routes. Its force is found to be inadequate to the performance of its duties; and it requires two additional lerks, one of the first, and the other of the second grade. The Appointment Office has a sufficient force for the performance of its duties with accuracy and promptitude. The duties of the Inspection Office are rapidly extend. ing, and its present force will not long be equal to their performance. Its chief object is a rigid supervision over the rendition of postmasters' accounts, and the performance of contractors. Conducted with system and energy, it will soon be felt on our thousands of mail routes, whenever a delinquency occurs. Most of the contractors perform their esrvice with great fidelity and precision; but there are a few, some of them on important routes, who evade their contract obligations whenever they have a temptation to do so, relying for impunity on their adroitness in making excuses, and the indulgence of the department. They will find it their interest to fulfil their enmode of making contracts with rail-road companies. The gagements, or quit the service. In some parts of the law prescribing the manner of making mail contracts country where complaints of irregular mails are loudest, the fault is not in the department, nor the contractors, but in the roads. The department is obliged to use such roads as it finds, and it is unreasonable in the people to expect regular mails unless they will make good roads.

My three assistants are assiduous in their duties, often by night as well as by day; and in relation to their compensation, deserve the favorable consideration of Con-

The Auditor's Office is proceeding with vigor to accomplish the objects of its creation. The disbursement of the Post Office funds through the Treasury, formerly deemed impracticable, is effected with the utmost facility. Post Office warrants are reduced to the size of ordinary bank checks, and, with the check of the Treasurer endorsed, are remitted with the same ease, and answer the same purpose. Without the inconvenience of specific appropriations, the accounts of the department are more specific, more easily understood, and more readily examined, than those of any other department of the Government. It is the desire of the undersigned, which the Auditor has shown erery disposition to promote, to render them intelligible to any one who may examine the books.

Difficulty has in some cases been experienced in renewng, for six months, the mail contracts which will expire on the 31st instant, under the authority vested in the Postmaster Genera, by resolution, at the last session of Congress. The object of the resolution was to facilitate a change in the commencement of the contract year. To promote the same object and avoid a like difficulty in relation to the remaining contracts, power is asked to let them in the usual mode for four years and a half, which will lead to the same result.

I have the honor to be, Your obedient servant, AMOS KENDALL.

The Post Master General's Report .- On our First Page will be found the annual report of the Hon. Amos Kendall, Post Master General. According to this document the Post Office Department is in a state of efficiency, which abundantly proves the zeal, ability, and success, with which Mr Kendall has devoted himself to its renovation and improvement. Its financial affairs are in a highly flourishing state, and Mr K. has already a large surplus revenue for the whigs to divide. This division the Post Master General proposes to accomplish by reducing the rates of postage about 20 per cent., and thus leaving the surplus where it belongs, in the pockets of the peoplewhich is, we may add, the only fair and honest mode of

The promptness with which the Post Office revenue is collected and paid over to the department, is alike creditable to the systematic arrangements of the present head of the department, and to the whole body of Post Masters through the country. It being ascertained that 95 per cont. of the whole revenue is collected from Post Masters within thirty days of the close of each quarter.

The recommendation to regulate the postage of newspapers according to their size and weight, is an excellent one. Founded in justice, it would be most salutary in its operation.

Besides a large increase of regular mail transportation, the last year has witnessed the establishment of an express mail, on an extensive portion of the great Southern route, which is one of the happiest and most successful improvements of the present Post Master General. The great mail is 12 3 4 days going from New York to Mobile, and the express mail only 5 3 4 days travelling the same route. The success of the experiment is undoubted; this mail leaves all other news far behind, and gives unprecedented activity to commercial transactions. It is contemplated to start another express mail next year from Washington city along the route of the national road to St Louis, from New Orleans, through Nashville, Louisville, and Cincinnati, to connect above with the great eastern and western route; and from Boston, through Albany to Buffalo, N. Y.

We observe that the Courier of this city intimates a doubt of the usefulness and success of the express mail, because it has seen in sundry New York [whig] papers a gond deal of muttering at its tardiness. We would ask if the same objection could not be urged against every measure of the present administration, good, bad and indifferent. But in this case, those New York whig editors have a special cause for muttering. The express mail, bringing news impartially to all, has superceded their private expresses which gave them a monopoly of information and furnished such facilities for infamous stock-jobbing While alloding to the Boston Courier it may be well to stick a pin in the vile and calumnious insimuation by which the Courier disgraces itself, viz : that Mr. Kendallis implicated in the recent destruction of the Post Office by fire! We should not have noticed an insinuation which can only injure its author, were it not for the homilies which the Conrier occasionally takes upon itself to read to its brethren of the quill on the score of giving publication to personal abuse. But it seems the Courier only abstains from abusing and calumniating its brother editors. who have the means and ability to return the poisoned chalice to its own lips, and bravely allows itself unelude the possibility of retaliation.

The Spy in Washington, who wrote for the New York Courier, some winters since, frequently communicated the doings of the Senate while in secret session, which the members were under oath not to divulge. From whom he received his information was a matter of much wonder at the time, but is made pretty apparent now, by the following paragraph, which we extract from the New York Era:-

"The sion of Mr Poindexter from public life was a great draw back to the interest, vivacity and value of the Spy in Washington's" correspondence; with this honorable gentleman he was hand and glove, and the information and hints he extracted from him were necessarily important, obtained as they were from the highest

London Nov. 3—The Madrid press is loud in denouncing dil who was only a few leagues distant, and has suffered Al-naden to fall without a struggle. "He has not only," says the hronicle, "allowed the victorious Gomez to advance northward to the plain, but to a point from which he equally menaces Talvero and Toledo, and by consequencence Madrid."

Portugal.—By letters from Lisbon of the 28th of Ootober, it ppears that all was tranquil, but great excitemen and fears still prevailed lest a counter revolution should take place. The government has caused to be republished in the official journals the lecree excluding Don Miguel and his descendants forever from Liverpool Cotton Market, Nov. 7 .- There has been rather more aquiry for Cotton this week from the spinners, particularly for middling to good fair qualities of America, for which rather higher prices have been paid; the low classes and East India, nigher prices have been paid; the low classes and East India, however, remain depressed, and the prices of nearly all long-stapled cotton, excepting Sea Island, may be considered 4d per lb lower. The business of the week amounts to 12,240 bales, and comprises 50 Sea Island at 23d to 27d; 3,360 Bowed, 34d to 114d; 2,590 Mobile, Alabama, Tennessee, 7½d to 124d; 2,750 Ordans, 75d to 134d, 1,000 Demonstrates Periods leans, 73d to 134d; 1,060 Pernambuco, Paruba, &c. 114d to 14d; 120 tahia and Maceio. 10d to 103d; 20 Carthagena, 84d; 30 West India, 104d; 330 Egyptian, 12d to 17d; 240 Surat, 44 to 74d; 60 Madras, 74d to 74d; and 250 Eengal at 44d to 54d per ib.; of which 200 American have been taken on speculation, with 100 American. 100 Surat, and 250 Eengal for export the with 100 American, 100 Surat, and 250 Bengal for export the market is quiet, but we believe there is no alteration in prices since Friday. The sale, on saturday and to-day are 3,000 bags.

The Savannah Georgian of the 16th learns, by an arrival from Volusia, that the troops under General Jesup, with the army, left for the Wahoo Swamp on Monday the 12th. Gen. Call had just arrived at Volusia, having left

It appears from a letter from Volusia, dated Dec. 9, that Gen. Jesup had assumed the command of the armythat he had issued an order that officers entitled to forage shall carry on their horses one bushel of corn each, besides other necessary articles. The letter states-"Our prison ers give important information relative to the Indians, and we expect the Wahoo Swamp to be the scene of much bloody fighting"-and farther, "we march with thirty days provisions."

Our Charleston slips of the 17th give us an account of the following shipwreck :- The British ship Barton, Anwyl from Barb does, whence she sailed on the 4th ult. in ballast, consigned to G. Hervey, went ashore at half past 7 o'clock on Friday night last, on St. Helena Breakers, where she remained until 2 o'clock P. M. when she bilged and filled and her stern dropped out. Captain A. finding she was fast going to pieces, abandoned her and took to for the shore, which they were unable to reach from the N. W. gale which was blowing at the time. On Saturday at half past I o,clock, they were fallen in with by the shorp Two Brothers, and taken on board. $48,000 in gold, and their clothes was all that was saved from the Kidd's New Orleans Merchants' Exchange Books of the 14th says:—

"General Santa Anna with his guards, got on board the steamboat Tennessean at Plaquemme and proceeded up the river on their way to Washington city. They came the lower route by way of Attakapas instead of Nacogdoches."

A MERICAN MONTHLY MAGAZINE.-Prospectus-On the first of January, will be published the first number of the ninth volume of the American Monthly Magazine. This will commence the second year of "The New Series of the American Monthly." One year has passed well established periodical, the resources of a publication which had previously absorbed those of the American Monthly Review and of the United States Magazine, were all concentrated in the American Monthly Magazine; giving at once so broad a basis to the work as to stamp its National character, and ensure its permanency. The number of pages which have each month exceeded one hundred, was at the same time increased, to make room for the additional supply of time increased, to make room for the additional supply original matter; and each number of the work throughout the year has been ornumented with an engraving, executed by the flist artists in the country. How far the literary contents of the Magazine have kept pase with these secondary improvements, the public are the best judges. The aim of the proprietors has been, from the first, to establish a periodical which should have a tone and character of its own; and which, while rendered sufficiently amusing to ensure its circulation, should ever keep for its main object the promotion of good taste, and ever keep for its main object the promotion of good taste, and vigorous, and fearless thinking, upon whatever subject it undertook to discuss; which, in a word, should make its way into public favour, and establish its claims to consideration, rather by what should be found in its pages than by any eclat which the names of popular contributors, or the dissemination of landatory paragraphs, could confer. Nor has the American Monthly had any reason to regret having adopted and tollowed out the course prescribed to itself from the first. colat which the names of popular contributors, or the dissemination of landatory paragraphs, could confer. Nor has the American Monthly had any reason to regret having adopted and tollowed out the course prescribed to itself from the first. It has, indeed, lost both contributors and subscribers by the tone of some of its papers; but by the more enlightened, who have judged of the tendency of the work in the aggragate, and not by its occasional difference of opinion with themselves, it has been sustained with spirit and liberality. It has been enabled to emerge from infancy and dependence upon extrinsic circumstance; and the quickening power of many minds, laboring successively or in unison, has infused vitality into the creation while shaping it into torm, until now it has a livthe creation while shaping it into form, until now it has a living principle of its own. It has become something, it is hoped, which "the world would not willingly let die."

But though the subscription list of the American Monthly has enlarged with the publication of every number during the last year, it is not yet sufficiently full to justify the publishers have greatly to offer their plan of liberally compensating as year, it is not yet sufficiently full to justify the publishers in carrying into effect their plan of liberally compensating both the regular contributors and every writer that furnishes a casual paper to the work. Nor until literary labor in every department of a periodical is adequately thus rewarded can

Nor until literary labor in every department of a periodical is adequately thus rewarded, can it in ly sustain or merit the character which an occasional article from a well-paid popular pen may give it. If these views be just, there is no impertinence in appealing here to the public to assist in furthering them by promoting the prosperty of the American Monthly Magazine.

The work, which is under the editorial charge of C. F. The New England Crown Glass being purer in color than any other Glass, is preferable for Stores, as it does not tinge the rays of light as they pass through it, and therefore white goods particularly appear to advantage; and it is peculiarly useful for Factories, as some minutes of light may be guined morning and evening, in consequence of the absence of color in this glass. The price of second quality is reduced from the rates heretofore asked.

This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit, without the least risk of

The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disinterested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from indigestion for three years. During this time, I suffered very much from mental depression, con stant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pain-over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain as tended with a strong degree of heat. At times, I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a table spoonful of it, which, in the course of a few hours completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect, in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case, I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs,

It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

A N account of that most excellent Medicine prepared at Dr Loveman's Gilead House. Price 50 cents per bottle.

Sold by appointment in Boston, at D. S. ROWLAND'S, 188 Washington street, Boston. To administer to a mind diseased, pluck from the Memory

arooted Sorrow,
Raze out the written troubles of the Brain, and with some sweet oblivious Antidote, Cleanse the foul Bosom of that perilous stuff which weighs upon the Heart."

Dr. LOVEMAN'S Balm of Gilead is universally acknowledged to be peculiarly efficacious in all inward wastings, loss of appetite, indigestion, depression of spirits, trembling or shaking of the hands or limbs, shortness of breath, and consumptive habits. It thins the blood, eases the most violent pain in the head and stomach, and promotes gentle perspiration. By the Medical Faculty this medicine is much admired being pleasant to the taste and smell, gently astringing the fibres of the stomach, and giving that proper tensity which a good digestion requires.

Dr Loveman's Balm of Gilead is recommended to the weak, the relaxed, and debilitated, as an agreeable and speedy resto-very variable, sometimes uncommonly slow, at other times very quick—yawning, the hiccough, frequent sighing, and a sense of suffocation, as from a ball or lump in the throat—alternate fits of crying and convulsive langhing—the sleep unsound, and seldom refreshing, and the patient often troubled with horrid dreams. Much has been said by interested individuals against Medicines that are advertised, but there is very important observation to be made respecting by Love. very important observation to be made respecting Dr Love man's Balm of Gilead, that unless its operation was gentle safe and efficacious, it could not have obtained the unexampled demand it has acquired.

NERVOUS DEBILITY. "Without Health we can enjoy no Fortune; Honors, Riches, and all other advontages are useless."

HIPPOCRATES This Cordial has been uncommonly successful with This Cordial has been uncommonly successful with young people who have the appearance and air of old age, who are pale, effeminate, benumbed, stupid, and even imbecile; whose bodies are become bent, whose legs are no longer able to carry them, who have an utter distaste for every thing, and are totally incapacitated. Where the stomach is frequently disordered, the body is weakened; paleness, bodily decay emaciation succeed, and the eyes sink into the head. virtues of Dr Loveman's Balm of Gileadere demonstrated, in oradicating the worst and most dangerous symptoms of nervous debility, and nothing has tended so much to establish the fame of this medicine, as its certain success in those complaints which strike their roots so deep in the constitution, and are so fatal to the happiness of mankind. so fatal to the happiness of mankind.

Dr Loveman's Balm of Gilead has risen in repute with every trial of its efficacy. Some, perhaps, unacquainted with its virtues, not having perused the Guide to Heslth, may be induced to ask what is the Balm of Gilead good for? What complaint doth it cure?—To answer this it will be necessary to "Hold the Mirror up to Nature."

Let those who are afflicted in the following manner reflect on the cause that produced such havoc upon the "wholesome appetities and nowers of life."—disordered stomach, dry appetites and powers of life:"-disordered stomach, dry cough, weakness in the voice, hoarseness, shortness of breath upon the least exercise, and relaxation of the whole system. Those afflicted with paleness, languor of the eyes, weakness of sight or memory, should take time to consider Linnaus's advice, that "youth is the important period for forming a robust constitution," and that "nothing is to be dreaded so much as premature excess." The foundation of a happy old age is a good constitution in youth; temperance and moderatio, at that age are passports to hegpy grey hairs.

For such as have violated these precepts, then, this healing balm is suitable—complaints included in the vague appellation of Nervous and Consumptive, are those for which it is peculiarly adapted. In offering this medicine to the public, I can say with confidence that they will find great benefit by using it in all diseases recommended, as I am fully acquainted with the medical qualities, as they have been discovered by myself, and are extracted from vegetables, and I can truly say, there is no earth ly danger in using the medicine by any person, no matter how they may be afflicted. This medicine has been used by a large number of persons, and have been cured of discusses of a long standing, when all other medicines have failed.

THE TRUTH WILL PREVAIL. CERTAIN DISEASES CUREO.

Dr. Goodwill's Gonorrhaa and Gleet Detergent. and Gleets is now become ever discovered for Gonorrho versal success, which in no instance has ever failed, has warranted it to cure in forty-eight hours the most desperate and inflammatory cases of Gonorihea, Gleets, and whites in all their stages, strictures, Seminal Weaknesses, pains in the loins, irritation of the Uretura from Gravel, as well as chronic affections of the warranteed at the Ticket Office of the Boston and Lowell Railroad, Boston; at Wildes' General Railroad and Stage Office, No. 11 Elm street, and at Stone's City Tavern.

Passengers obtaining tickets at No. 11 Elm street, and at Stone's City Tavern, will be conveyed to the Railroad from affections of the Uretura from Gravel, as well as chronic affections of the property of the Railroad from Stage Office, No. 11 Elm street, and at Stone's City Tavern, will be conveyed to the Railroad from affections of the Uretura from Gravel, as well as chronic and Lowell Railroad, Boston; at Wildes' General Railroad and Stage Office, No. 11 Elm street, and at Stone's City Tavern. loins, irritation of the Uretura from Gravel, as well as chronic affections of the urinary bladder and kidneys, if ever so violent or of long standing. This safe and only intallible remedy is an agreeable liquid, and its effects long on the constitution, know its efficacy. Every person that has made use medicine has been his own physician, and secrecy has been secured—having proved effectual in almost two thousand cases, and never to our knowledge failed in any instance. The vast and increasing sale from the recommendations of the highest medical characters, as well as those who have experienced its salubrious and beneficial offects, prove its great succes and entire superiority over every other medicine, in being the most effectual remedy ever discovered or the cure of the above diseases, giving—muscular strength, energy and vigorous health to the whole frame. The most delicate females may take it with perfect safety. Dr Goodwill's Detergent is a safe certain and speedy cure for the above diseases, from the most recent to the most protracted cases. It is taken without any risk, inconvenience, or suspension from business. See that your case is eradicated, not patched up by quack doctors or quack medicines. Those who make use of one single bottle may be convinced of the easy method of being cared. The "motto" of this medicine, "iet every person be their own physician with secrecy." It will prevent the occurrence of the disease in persons, male or temale, of the most fastidious delicacy, and is a real blessing to human kind. It ought always to be on hand.

N. B. A word to the wise.—Take no medicine but the above, and keep away from the quack Doctors, whose names appear in every public print, and then you take no mercury and save your constitution.

We have much pleasure in bearing testimony to this safe and efficacious Medicine: we do this on grounds of strict impartiality, knowing several friends who have been cured by it.

THE REMEDY IS IN YOUR OWN HANDS-Dr Palm. er's Diman Pearl Tooth Powder and Brushes is offered as a remedy whose effects are as certain as they are delightful.— This excellent tooth powder is not the invention of the pres ent day. It has not been confined to modern times, and Dr Palmer has had the happiness of restoring, in its purity, the long lost article which was in such vogue in the days of yore. It is offered with the tallest confidence as to its merits, to which thousands who have need it can testity, and should any lady or gentleman who, by misfortune, have been affliced with noisome breath or bad teeth, make one trial of its virtues, and not feel perfectly satisfied of its efficacy, then "Othelo's occupation's gone.'

The Dunan Pearl Tooth Powder and Brushes is no modern quackery. It requires no puffing, no paragraphing, te render it uses as general as its effects are delightful. The ingredients are of a nature which cannot injure, and must beautify the teeth and sweeten the breath. the relaxed, and debilitated, as an agreeable and speedy restorative; and considered as a cordial, is essential to the comfort of ladies of fashion, being a preventive against cold, when take before going out to parties, balls, routs or the play. It will enliven the spirits and invigorate the mind and body, and if taken after fatigue, it will with a few hours sleep, take away all languor consequent on broken rest, and give relief from every unpleasant sensation.

It is a most valuable remedy for such diseases as are attended with the following symptoms, namely—a great straitness of the breast, with difficulty of breathing—violent palpitations of the heart, sudden flasses of heat in various parts of the body—at other times a sense of cold, as if water was poured on them—flying pains in the arms and limbs, back and belly, resembling those occasioned by the gravel—the pulse very variable, sometimes uncommonly slow, at other times
